NO CABLES

Up to the hour of going to press no press cables had been received today from San Francisco.

There is no delay in the cable company lines, it is announced in answer to inquiries at the cable office.

It is supposed that the big telegraphers' strike has again tied up Associated Press operators, hence the suspension of reports.

THE MARYLAND SENDS A REPLY

A COMPLIMENT.

EDITOR STAR:—There are many very handsome men among the sailors of these men-of-war now in port—refined and beautiful faces.—ANNE M. PRESCOTT in Star yesterday.

Honolulu, Sept. 6th, 1907.

THE EDITOR:—In behalf of the Maryland's crew I wish to thank the lady who complimented us through the columns of the "Star" as we believe she must have been referring to the boys of the Maryland. The Maryland's crew are certainly a bunch of beauties and since perusing yesterday's paper there has been a grand rush on the canteen to purchase cold cream, talcum powder, scented soap and other toilet perquisites. Truly yours, CHARLIE NOBLE.

SUING NEBRASKAN.

The case of Karl Weidmann vs. the American-Hawaiian Steamship Nebraskan for $3,000 damages for injuries received while engaged as seaman on the vessel in question, was up in the U. S. Admiralty court this morning. Judge Dole overruled a motion of the defendant to dismiss the case. The court suggested that the plaintiff file an amended libel and gave the defendants five days time in which to reply to the amended bill. The plaintiff in the case claims to have been injured while handling cargo on the vessel, by a heavy iron plate falling on him. Attorney George A. Davis represents the plaintiff and R. W. Breckons the defendant.

LONGWORTH'S FAREWELL WORDS

SAYS HE HAS GREATLY ENJOYED HAWAII AND HOPES TO COME AGAIN AND BRING THE PRESIDENT—ROOSEVELT WILL NOT RUN AGAIN UNLESS THE ENTIRE COUNTRY DEMANDS HIS CANDIDACY.

Congressman Longworth, who leaves on the Korea, when asked if he had anything to say about Hawaii before he left for home, replied: "I think Hawaii is one of the greatest places in all this world. No other place that I have ever been in can equal Hawaii in regard to climate. I have enjoyed every minute I have been here and it is with great regret that I am leaving. I only wish I could call Honolulu my home, as I have learned to love it with a love that no one can realize, until they have been here and have met the people."

"This is one spot on the earth that a person wants to see again, and I will be back here as soon as I can. Next year is the Presidential election and every one will have to be out campaigning. The chances are very small for a vacation at all. The following year my term is up as a representative from Ohio, and I will have to get out and do some hard work for myself

If I want the nomination again. But I can assure you that I will be back again, and I hope that I can stay longer."

"Mrs. Longworth is also in love with the islands, and is very anxious to get back here again. Everyone has been very good to us, and it is hard to show our appreciation for their kindness, but the old saying 'that the best of friends must part is true in our case.'"

When the Congressman was asked about the chances of another term for his father-in-law, the President, he replied: "I do not think that he will accept it under any conditions. Certainly unless the entire country demands it, he will not accept another term. His administration has been a very strenuous one, and he needs a long rest. When we come back again we are going to bring the President along, and I am very sure that he will think the same about the islands as we do."

PLAGUE BAD IN SAN FRANCISCO

WASHINGTON SENDS FURTHER ADVICES TO HONOLULU DIRECTING A CAREFUL QUARANTINE—THE CRUISER SQUADRON MAY HEAD FOR THE SOUND IF CONDITIONS IN GOLDEN GATE CITY DO NOT MEND.

Dr. Carl Ramus, in charge of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital Service in this Territory, this morning received further advice from Washington, emphasizing the necessity of maintaining a rigid quarantine here against San Francisco and to the effect that the bubonic plague situation in San Francisco is very serious. In San Francisco the U. S. P. H. & M. Service has taken the protection of the public out of the hands of the

BOXING BOUTS BY CRUISER MEN

SAILORS NOW IN PORT MAY GIVE A PRIZE RING EXHIBITION NEXT WEEK.

It is very probable that the lovers of good boxing will have a chance to see some of the real thing before the warships leave, as there are a lot of good scrappers in the cruiser squadron, and they propose to have a carnival some days next week.

Boxing has always been encouraged in the Navy and some good bouts will be the order of the day.

American Girl May Marry Royalty

MISS JEAN REID.

Gossip of a highly reliable nature says that Miss Jean Reid, daughter of the American Ambassador to the Court of St. James, is the heroine of a romance which is to be tipped off short by her possible marriage to no less a personage than His Royal Highness Prince Arthur of Connaught. Miss Reid's choice of a life partner would have been Lord Acheson, son of the Earl and Countess of Gosford, but her mother's ambition aimed higher and it may be that Miss Reid will yet be known as Her Royal Highness Princess Arthur of Connaught.

Prince Arthur is the only son of the King's brother and is without fortune, although his mother is wealthy. He is 24 years of age and is said to be deeply in love with Lady Marjorie Manners, so that possibly two love stories may be spoiled through the machinations of a mother's ambition.

SAYS THE LAW IS A PROHIBITION LAW

ATTORNEY FOR MIGUEL ATTACKS THE LICENSE COMMISSION, AND THE LAW UNDER WHICH IT ACTS, IN THE SUPREME COURT—SAYS LAW IS VIRTUALLY PROHIBITION WHICH THE LEGISLATURE DIDN'T INTEND.

The constitutionality of the new liquor law is now being tested in the Supreme Court, in the hearing of the case of Jacintho Miguel, the Kakaako saloon keeper who was convicted in the District Court of selling liquor without a license, this necessary instrument having been refused him by the board of liquor license commissioners for good and sufficient reasons known only to themselves.

The trial in the District Court resulted in his being fined for selling a bottle of beer, $100, and from this an appeal was taken by his attorney, T. M. Harrison, and the fight will be on the constitutionality of the act.

In opening his case before the court this morning, Attorney Harrison brought up a number of points which he contended makes the liquor act unconstitutional. One of these was that the law allows the License Board to refuse to renew a liquor dealer's license but fails to provide any way by which he can dispose of such stock as he may have on hand at the time, unless he gives it away, drinks it himself, or goes into the bankruptcy court. The law, he says is defective, in not anticipating such a contingency, although it does provide for the manner of disposal of stock in case of the revocation of a license.

Another point which Harrison claims invalidates the act is that the law puts absolute power into the hands of the license commission even to refusing to

TRUST BUSTING AND HAWAII'S NEXT LOAN

WALL STREET NOT IN VERY RECEPTIVE HUMOR TOWARDS BORROWERS AND TREASURER CAMPBELL MAY HAVE DIFFICULTY IN FLOATING LOAN—THE NUUANU DAM WORK IS NOW ALMOST AT A STANDSTILL.

From President Roosevelt's trust-busting to the Nuuanu dam seems like a long jump, but there is a direct connection between the two, and Contractor Whitehouse and the Territorial administration are a good deal worried about it. Hawaii wants to issue more bonds and Treasurer Campbell leaves on the Korea to try to float them, but owing to the trust busting he will find the purse strings of Wall street very tight and may not be able to get the money.

"The only thing I am worried about," said Whitehouse, "is the condition of the money market. I do not think there is the slightest question about the legality of my contract for the Nuuanu dam, but I do think there is doubt about the Territory being able to borrow any money just now."

"At present little is being done at the dam. There are only about fifteen men at work. The money is nearly exhausted. I hope the new bond issue will be floated all right so that we can no ahead. If it is not, the situation will certainly be tough on me."

All of the Wall street journals contain comments on the money stringency and the Roosevelt trouble, and the President has just made another

LEWIS WILL GO TO LAKE MOHONK

ATTORNEY WILL DELIVER AN ADDRESS AT CONFERENCE ON SHIP SUBSIDY MATTER.

A Lewis Jr., the lawyer and Mrs. Lewis, leave today on the Korea for a three months' trip to the east. They are going directly to Boston, and while there Lewis will attend to some business. He will then go to Lake Mohonk, New York, and will deliver an address before the "Lake Mohonk Conference of friends of the Indians" on October 23. Lewis will speak on Ship Subsidy relative to the Hawaiian Islands.

Lewis stated that he was in favor of a mail subsidy, or a subsidy for passenger ships only, and was not at all in favor of having coastwise shipping laws modified. "What we want is a line of American steamships and not foreign ships to carry our passengers and freight. I will make my address as strong as possible, and I only hope that Congress this year will pass a subsidy bill, and our flag will once more be seen on the seas as it used to be years ago."
